

AMENDMENTS TO THE CLAIMS

1. (Currently amended) The method of preserving the legal rights of an individual in a state that has laws governing the rights of individuals accused of a DUI violation from a government agent to have the right to an independent sobriety test, comprising the steps of

I) providing a membership card with indicia indicating directions for the tester member to accept the government agent's request for a sobriety test and requesting from the government agent the right to have a test done by an independent agency;

ii) providing a kit having a container for receiving a urine sample from the accused;

iii) providing on the membership card of step I) the name of a pre-ordained tester for accepting the urine sample for delivering the container obtained in step ii to a laboratory capable of analyzing said urine sample; and

iv) testing the urine sample obtained in the step iii) of providing on the membership card by the laboratory of step iii).

2. (Original) The method of preserving the legal rights of an individual in a state that has laws governing the rights of individuals accused of a DUI violation from a government agent to have the right to an independent sobriety test as claimed in claim 1 including the step of providing an identification card with indicia stating the pertinent state statute and the instruction to accept the requested sobriety test made by the government official and requesting that the government official permit the independent sobriety test.

3. (Currently amended) The method of preserving the legal rights of an individual in a state that has laws governing the rights of individuals accused of a DUI violation from a government agent to have the right to an independent sobriety test as claimed in claim 2 including the step of forming a unit of member testers that which member testers are available to a member of the unit when accused of a DUI violation.

4. (Currently amended) Means for assisting an individual accused of a DUI violation to preserve that individual's legal right in obtaining an independent sobriety test when being charged by a government official, comprising a membership card issued by a business organization to each of said members with indicia providing on the card the names of at least two individual member testers and instructions to accept a sobriety test offered by the government official and requesting an additional sobriety test for delivering to an independent agency a urine sample by one of said testers and a kit consisting of at least one container for storing a urine sample of the accused individual whereby a sobriety test of said urine sample can be done by an independent agency.

5. (Currently amended) Means for assisting an individual accused of a DUI violation to preserve that individual's legal right in obtaining an independent sobriety test when being charged by a government official as claimed in claim 4 wherein said kit includes an outer container having a sealed removable top, an inner container in said outer container for holding a urine sample and a pouch in said outer container for transporting said inner container.

6. (Original) Means for assisting an individual accused of a DUI violation to preserve that individual's legal right in obtaining an independent sobriety test when being charged by a government official as claimed in claim 5 wherein said inner container includes cap means for sealing said inner container.

7. (Original) Means for assisting an individual accused of a DUI violation to preserve that individual's legal right in obtaining an independent sobriety test when being charged by a government official as claimed in claim 6 including a stick-on label having spaces for identifying the member being accused of the DUI violation.